Kelvin SMITH

Kelvin Smith is from Los Angeles, California. Kelvin is a former University basketball player and currently living in Vancouver, Canada approaching 10 years coming up in August. Prior to living there, he lived in Winnipeg, Manitoba where he went to the University of Winnipeg and played the first 2 Collegiate seasons there.

Kelvin was named Canada West Rookie of the year in the 2010-2011 season where he averaged 14 points and 9 rebounds as a first year player. After his second season where he dealt with a couple injuries, he decided to leave Winnipeg and finished up his 3 remaining years at Trinity Western University in Langley, BC.

During his 3 season there, he averaged 13.5 points and 7.5 rebounds per game. In his final season Kelvin posted his best statistical year while averaging 18 points and 8.5 rebounds per game.

After graduating and receiving his degree in Human Kinetics, he started to explore a life in coaching and skills development.

Kelvin is currently coaching with a local club program called G2 basketball academy and he has a huge impact on the youth in the the Vancouver and Fraser Valley areas.

Kelvin also work part time as an independent personal trainer, where he is trying to build his own fitness brand called "Dedicated". With plans to expand the brand into an apparel/fashion brand in time.
